

Proclamation

Office of the Mayor

“ELIZABETH GOETSCHIUS DAY”

FEBRUARY 19, 2009

WHEREAS, this proclamation is in proud recognition of Elizabeth Goetschius; and

WHEREAS, on October 27, 1983, Elizabeth Goetschius, a life-long resident of Dumont, became a member of the Board of Trustees of the Dixon Homestead Library; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Goetschius, a graduate of Dumont High School, with her impressive background experience as secretary to three Dumont School Superintendents over a 20-year period; a free lance writer for The Record and the Twin Boro News; and memberships in state, county and local Educational Secretaries associations, has served as Secretary to the Library for over ten years; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Goetschius has volunteered her time, energy and effort during the past 25 years including endless support with numerous programs sponsored by the Dixon Homestead Library; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Goetschius is an example of the upstanding and giving individual that we strive as a community to achieve;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Matthew P. McHale, do hereby proclaim February 19, 2009 as:

“ELIZABETH GOETSCHIUS DAY”

during which time the entire community of Dumont joins Mrs. Goetschius, her family, as well as her friends, in celebration. Mrs. Goetschius is extended every best wish on this special day.

Matthew P. McHale, Mayor
